BRAGG WINS AGAIN.

The heavy downpour of rain at noon yesterday rendered the track at Harlem sloppy, and mud larks held supreme sway throughout the afternoon's sport. Much scratching reduced the heavy entry list considerably and small fields were the rule. The feature race of the day was the fifth, a free handicap at one mile and seventy yards. Waswift dodging the issue, Bragg was made an odds on favorite on account of his good showing of the day before, and won somewhat easily by a length from Harry New, which beat Marcos in a spirited drive by a neck for second place. Marcos showed a sharp form reversal and was a keen contender until a sixteenth out. The day before he was hopelessly beaten off in a much inferior field. Harry New moved up fast in the final eighth, but had all he could do to outfinish Marcos for second place.

Death was in a soft spot in more than one way in the first race and won as his rider pleased by four lengths from Andes, which beat Emma R. a half for second place. Death was held at 1 to 2 in the betting and certainly won as the odds indicated. Lady Idris showed a keen turn of speed for a half mile, but tired badly when well straightened for home. Andes showed sudden improvement and may reasonably be expected to give a good account of himself from now on. Brigadier labored in the going and evidently runs to his best form on a fast track only.

The second race came close to ending in a big surprise, Gregor K., the 1 to 3 favorite, winning only by a head on the post from St. Minor after an exciting last eighth struggle. Gregor K. broke flatfooted and attempted to run to the outside rail, but Ranch held him together and immediately took him to the front. He appeared to be an easy winner until just about turning for home, where St. Minor moved up fast and joined him. From the last eighth post to the wire the two had it out hammer and tongs, Gregor K. winning by the superior jockeyship of Ranch over Donnelly. Farmer Jim finished a dismal third. He ran fairly well for five furlongs, but was well spent when entering the last eighth. Lemco showed early speed.

The third race proved an easy thing for Prince of Africa, which won by three and a half lengths from Nitrate, with Prima II. a poor third. The last named showed much speed for seven furlongs, but tired fast when the deciding drive came. Nitrate evidently does not run to his best form on any but a fast track.

The long distance race went to Lady Chorister in a drive by a neck from John McGurk, with Sardonic third three and a half lengths back. John McGurk was given a weak ride in the final eighth, where he appeared to have a winning chance and finished on his own courage. Sardonic appeared to be running well within herself on the turn for home, but tired badly when a furlong out.

Ravensbury is proving to be a rather shifty horse for S. C. Hildreth. He had little trouble in out-running Chorus Boy in the final eighth of the last race, winning easily by one length. Linden Ella finished a beaten off third. Chorus Boy displayed much speed, but could not concede the weight to Ravensbury, tiring fast when challenged by the latter after entering the last quarter.

The usual large gathering was on hand and, considering track conditions, witnessed a fair day's sport. The track at the best this afternoon will favor mud horses.

MONADNOCK HANDICAP WEIGHTS.

With one exception the Monadnock Handicap, which will be decided at Harlem Saturday, is the richest and most important of the Chicago Jockey Club's annual list of fixtures. Its $4,000 added money justly serves to invest it with dignity in the local racing field and its honors are keenly coveted by horse owners. It received 104 nominations, of which Waring and Denman Thompson have died.

To the big list of horses now eligible Secretary Clark has assigned the following weights:

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

Jockey Taylor, with whom Farrell fell in the steeplechase at Harlem Monday, died yesterday at the Garfield Park Sanitarium. It developed yesterday that the jockey had had his neck broken by the fall and the wonder was that he lived as long as he did considering the nature of his injury. The dead jockey was well known to many racegoers in the early '90's and rode some creditable races around Latonia and Louisville for H. Simons, father of Albert Simons. Of late years "Smoky" Taylor has been riding jumpers and was considered by many horsemen as more than fair as a guide of a horse over the obstacles.

Judge Trevelyan reprimanded Jockey Buchanan after the third race for crowding on the first turn. He warned the rider that a repetition of the offense would earn the jockey a vacation on the ground.

The judges had jockey Coburn in the stand after the fourth race and questioned him in regard to his ride on Harry New. The jockey stated that the horse appeared strong and speedy when turning into the stretch, but in the last eighth tired as if short. The boy's explanation proved satisfactory to the officials.

Owner Curl requested the judges to be permitted to ride J. Ranch on Bragg instead of Buchanan with whom he had made a prior engagement to ride the horse, giving as his reason that Ranch understood the horse more thoroughly. The request was granted, subject to the rule that Buchanan would also have to be paid a winning or losing mount.

The bidding up of horses was resumed yesterday and the two horses that earned brackets in the races that had selling conditions attached were bid up to a like amount—$900. Lady Chorister was entered to be sold for $900, and was secured by S. L'Hommedieu. Ravensbury was in to be sold for $500 and after several $100 bids had been made on him, H. E. Rowell, acting for S. C. Hildreth, the horse's owner, bid $900, at which price he was retained.

†Coupled in betting.

Time, 12, 23, 46½, 1:12.

Winner—B. f. by Donovan—Lucasta (trained by A. J. Joyner).

Went to post at 2:30. At post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Lux Casta ran through the field in the first hundred yards with amazing speed and, forcing the pace throughout, drew clear in the stretch apparently an easy winner, but was driving at the end to beat Anak. The latter ran a remarkably fast and game race. Sadducee was going fastest of all at the end, closed a big gap in the last half and ran in his best form. Belle of Lexington held on in improved fashion. The Amazon, away flatfooted and knocked about in the first half, had absolutely no chance and closed an immense gap from the turn to the wire. She was easing up at the end and ran a good race. Cuspidor, Wealth and Lord Pepper were crowded out of the race early. The time ties the record.

Scratched—(33535) Francesco, 120; 33802 Bellario, 120; 33678 Ben MacDhui, 113; 33781 Clonmell, 112; 33776 Redpath, 109; 29104 King Pepper, 122; 33415 Handicapper, 105.

Time, 12½, 23½, 48½, 1:01½.

Winner—B. c. by Indio—Flora Hurst (trained by T. Welsh).

Went to post at 2:55. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Hurstbourne got away running and led unextended from start to finish, outclassing the field. Kentucky Rose drew clear of the others in the stretch and finished strongly. Tioga, probably short, was tiring at the end. Stamping Ground, away badly and crowded at the start, apparently was not in her stride until in the last quarter, where she finished with a rush. Mackey Dwyer, a slow beginner, made up much ground and finished fast. Uranium is improving and a good looker.

Scratched—33856 Frank Karkick, 110; 33835 Knocknagow, 110; 32975 Tugai Bay, 110.

Overweights—Stamping Ground, 1 pound.

Winner—Ch. c. by Himyar—Felicite (trained by W. C. Daly).

Went to post at 3:20. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Himself is greatly improved, followed the comparatively slow pace closely and stole a winning lead on the stretch turn. Tom Kenny and Ethics trailed far back and both closed up fast at the end, but came into action too late. Ethics was going fastest of all at the end, and but for being crowded in the last furlong would have been second. Surmise was badly interfered with when in behind St. Finnan, which quit suddenly after making the pace for the first mile.

Himself, show, 2 to 1. Tom Kenny, show, 7 to 10. Ethics, show, out. Surmise, show, out. St. Finnan, show, out.

Time, 12, 24½, 48½, 1:01.

Winner—B. c. by Henry of Navarre—Invermay (trained by A. L. Aste).

Went to post at 3:45. At post 4 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second the same. Plater and Blue and Orange quickly drew clear and raced as a team throughout, Plater finishing best. Blue and Orange ran to his best form. Roxboro broke slowly and was reserved to the stretch, where she made good in unexpectedly game fashion, and but for being pocketed next to the rail in the last furlong by the first two might have won. Zadok and Tugai Bey went well. Hackensack, strictly a mudlark, got a bad start and did not figure in the race.

Scratched—33557 Anna Daly, 89.

Plater, show, out. Blue and Orange, show, 3 to 5. Roxboro, show, 7 to 10.

We have a horse that should be at least 10 to 1 and if he runs within ten pounds of his work he should win as he pleases. We have inside information on two others that will not be favorites. They start in the second and sixth races. On one of these we shall advise our patrons to put the biggest bet of the season, as only an accident will prevent them from cashing.

THE YEARLING CROP.

Statistics compiled at Lexington by a noted turf authority show that to date 458 thoroughbred yearlings have been sold this year at public auction for a total of $512,350, a general average of $1,110. The yearlings so far sold are the representatives of twenty-two large breeding establishments, and were sired by 112 different stallions. In average, Runnymede stud leads all the breeding farms, but J. B. Haggin's Rancho del Paso stud, numbers considered, is deserving of first honor, since from that great place 133 head were sold, while Runnymede sent only ten head into the ring. The highest price of the year was $21,000, while the lowest was $15. Below will be found a table giving the number of yearlings sold from each breeding establishment, the total amount they sold for and the general average of each stud farm:

Of the 112 sires represented so far in the yearling sales of 1902 thirty-three had only one colt or filly sold, so they do not figure in the compilation below, which gives a list of these stallions whose get averaged $1,000 or over at the big sales. The noted Watercross leads all stallions in this respect, and, considering the number of head by him that were sold, it is probable that his record has never been equaled in this country:

EASTERN TURF TOPICS.

"Mexican's signal victory in the Produce Stakes on Saturday will serve to make him a factor in the Futurity calculations. Incidentally, the statement to the effect that Mexican got several lengths the best of the start on Saturday and won in consequence is offset by the remark of Shaw, who rode Hurst Park, that the start was perfect and that both Hurst Park and Injunction were away on a line with Mexican half a head back. Trainer Rowe has so many good two-year-olds in the Keene stable this year that he is at a loss to know just which ones to send to the post in the Futurity. At present he fancies Whitechapel, winner of the second part of the Double Event, and Rigodon, the St. Gatien colt, who has just made his debut and is as green as grass. But whatever decision Rowe makes, the fact remains that the Keene representatives in the Futurity will meet such dangerous rivals as Irish Lad, Mizzen, Mexican, Africander, Hurstbourne, Sir Voorhies, River Pirate and others. John E. Madden, by the way, is reported to have a surprise in store for the public in Merry Reel, a chestnut filly by Mirthful—Amanda V., who has been burning up the track in private trials," says the New York Sun of Monday.

"While most of the big stables will be shipped to Saratoga within the next ten days, it has been officially announced that the Keene horses will remain at Brighton until the end of the present meeting. Last year the Keene colors were not seen at Saratoga, partly because the stable was not long in good horseflesh and partly, it was said, because of the supposed feeling between Mr. Whitney and Mr. Keene. The great interest Mr. Whitney has shown in building up Saratoga within the last two years has caused him to be recognized as the man in control there. For that reason [and because of the gossip relative to the rivalry that exists between the two millionaires, turfmen are anxious to know whether the Keene stable will race at the Springs next month. So far there has been no intimation of the stable's plans, one way or another, but it was said on good authority yesterday that the 'white, blue spots' would be carried at Saratoga in several of the more important events. Mr. Keene is expected back from Europe shortly. He will be home in time to see the Futurity run. The success of his two-year-olds is said to have hastened his departure for this country.

"According to Robert Pinkerton, who has passed many seasons as the official guardian of the tracks here, this is a phenomenal year in point of attendance. Pinkerton says that the crowds have averaged 20 per cent more in numbers each day than last year, and that the tracks, all of them, have been overtaxed. 'Ever since the Jockey Club secured control of racing in the east,' said Pinkerton the other day, 'there has been a steady improvement year by year. Of course, as to the racing itself, other men can speak with more authority, but I would like to say a few words about the people who patronize the races. We never have had such crowds as this year, both in numbers and quality. Every day I see parties of ladies come to the track unescorted. They are as safe as they would be on Fifth avenue. Such a thing was never heard of before. On Suburban Day, for instance, with 40,000 persons at the track, there was not a theft, a loss or a fight and not one drunken man on the grounds. That speaks pretty well for the class of people that attend the races.'

"Honesty in racing was never more convincingly shown," said a well-known horseman yesterday, "than during the week just ended when the public picked winners; the horses ran true to form and the bookmakers were burned up down at Brighton."

"It is estimated that more than fifty bookmakers have been driven to the wall since the racing season opened. At Brighton alone a dozen layers have been forced to get upon the ground and turn guessers. Several members of the bookmakers' association have made the assertion that 'the talent,' so called, must be at least $500,000 ahead of the game. David Gideon, Patrick H. McCarren, J. H. Carr, Dave Johnson, W. M. Barrick, Tom Mannix, 'Pittsburg Phil' and 'Packy' Ryan are the men who have been chiefly instrumental in making the layers unhook their bankrolls.

"The improvements at Saratoga have been completed. The grandstand has been moved nearer the track and the tiers of seats raised to admit a perfect view of the racing. The seating capacity has also been increased. The clubhouse has been rearranged so that an unobstructed view of the track may be had from the porches. The betting ring is now joined to the stand by added overhangs and is 175 feet long by 90 feet wide. Back of the grandstand the new paddock has been built, 220 feet long by 50 feet wide. Near at hand is a new building exclusively for the use of jockeys. The new track is a beauty. The surveyors say that it is one thirty-second of an inch over a mile in circumference—pretty close figuring."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

H. M. Ziegler, who is racing Hermis and other horses at Brighton, will have a splendid stable of two-year-olds next year, bar accident. The theatrical manager and ex-treasurer of Porkopolis has gathered together so far by purchases in private and at public sales close to thirty head of high-class yearlings. Among those are relatives to some good performers, the brother to Lady Schorr costing owner Ziegler $6,000. The lot, which are now at Sanford Lyne's Larchmont Stud, in Kentucky, will be added to from time to time. Owner Ziegler has engaged to break and train these yearlings the noted trainer Dan O'Brien of "pole moving" fame. Trainer O'Brien, one of the most capable men in his line, will have a chance to show his ability with the Ziegler yearlings, and it looks more than likely that he will get some good performers out of the lot.

The yearling colt Rainland, half brother to Barrack and Fay Belle, by Rainbow—Fable, by Blue Eyes, owned by George Hinkle, together with his stable companion, the yearling bay filly Lady Melbourne, by Rainbow—Scarlet and Green, by Hanover, was shipped to Shelbyville, Ky., July 20. They will be turned out until October, and then taken to Louisville to be fitted for their stake engagements. Rainland has worked one of the fastest trials ever shown at Lexington by a yearling, the time of the year considered, and the filly is also thought to be of stake class. Hinkle has refused to price Rainland to several prospective buyers. The colt is engaged in the Futurity and $75,000 of other stakes.

The Butte (Montana) track has another sprinting record. Tuesday, July 14, the sprinter Judge Thomas, by Traveler, clipped one-quarter of a second from the record for the distance of three and one-half furlongs, the time being 40½ seconds. In view of the fact that the winning horse carried an impost of 134 pounds, the race is one of the most remarkable in track history. The record was formerly held by Leora, her time being 40½ seconds. Following are the records that have been established on the Butte race track. It will be seen that each of the three is for a short distance: One-fourth of a mile, Bob Wade, 21½ seconds. Three furlongs, Red S., 34 flat. Three and one-half furlongs, Judge Thomas, 40½ seconds.

Sir Richard Hanlon, manager of the stable of W. W. Darden & Co., is in bad odor with his particular friends in the Bank of Commerce building, who are favored followers of the Darden stable.

The other day the rollicking Ricardo went to Chicago, where the stable is running. The long-distance telephone rings—

"That you, Billy?"
"Yes."
"This is Hanlon. This is Dick."
"Hello, Dick. How is it?"
"Bet the works on A. D. Gibson today. He is a 'pipe.'"

"All right, Dick. We'll get on. How about Lake View Belle?"

"Do not think she will do. It is a hard race."
"Good-by, Dick. Many thanks. Us for the limit on your hunch."

The selects get down on A. D. Gibson for the limit. He loses. Then Lake View Belle came home alone at 10 to 1.

Next day Sir Richard showed up at headquarters. He dragged a dozen bunches of bills from his pocket and throwing them down, said to the assembled gentlemen of whom he had made tramps with his bogus information:

"Count them. I am tired."
They were afraid to tackle the job, the bundle was so big. They borrowed a bank teller. He made it out $14,500.

"How did you get it, Mr. Hanlon?" was the astonished demand.

"Bet $2,000 on Lakeview Belle. Won $20,000. Blew the balance." And he put them down on Gibson for the limit and never croaked about Lake View Belle. It seems that Mr. Hanlon's finish is sitting up nights waiting for him now.—St. Louis Republic.

PRINCE OF MELBOURNE.

The appearance of the name of the five-year-old Prince of Melbourne among the nominations for the coming Twin City and Omnium Handicaps at Sheepshead Bay indicates that Alex Shields thinks it likely the Bramble horse will train again. Mr. Shields is not the man to waste money making dates for a horse on a remote chance of the animal filling them. If he did not think well of Prince of Melbourne's chances of making a general campaign in the fall he would be content to get him ready for the $25,000 Annual Champion race, for which the horse was nominated by Col. W. S. Barnes, his breeder, and for which he will be eligible as long as he stands up.

Prince of Melbourne has not done any hard work since Mr. Shields and his partner, Mr. Carruthers, bought him from Gottfried Walbaum, but he is eating well and is much improved in temper. The Bramble horse has a bowed tendon, but the injury is not serious, and Mr. Shields believes the bad leg will sustain him through a hard preparation. Other horses with worse legs than the Prince's have won races.

John Hynes, the man who trained the Bramble horse for Mr. Walbaum, has rendered every assistance possible to Mr. Shields. He has let him have the services of the boy who exercised the surly brute.

Hynes does not believe that there is any chance of Latson's new owners getting another good race out of him. Latson has completely lost the form he showed in the running of the Municipal Handicap at Morris Park last fall, when he equaled Ethelbert's American record for one mile and three-quarters.

If Prince of Melbourne stands up there is a possibility that he may meet in the Annual Champion the redoubtable Ethelbert. The Hon. Perry Belmont is anxious to win the Annual Champion with the Eothen horse before retiring him to the stud, and Ethelbert is being galloped daily by Jack Joyner at Sheepshead Bay to that end. So far Ethelbert has done well, but it is impossible to say whether his game leg will stand a couple of hard workouts. The spectacle of Ethelbert, the greatest three-year-old of 1899 and the winner of the Lawrence Realization Stakes, and Prince of Melbourne, the acknowledged champion of 1900 and also a winner of the Lawrence Realization, meeting in a race like the Annual Champion would be edifying. It would indicate that the rich two mile and a quarter special had become what its name implies—a championship contest.—Daily America.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Death was not called upon until he was turning into the last quarter, where he came away with a bound and won as his rider pleased. Andes ran a surprisingly good race in going not to his liking. He moved up fast in the last eighth and outstayed Emma R. in a drive for second place. The latter was tiring fast in the closing strides. Lady Idris showed early speed, but ceased to be a serious contender when a furlong out. Brigadier labored in the going and was always well beaten. Tatar showed early speed.

Winner—B. g. by Phoenix—Kela (trained by W. M. Hedges).
Went to post at 3:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Gregor K. showed his usual turn of speed, but when turning into the stretch was joined by St. Minor, the two fighting it out hard to the wire, with Ranch outriding Donnelly at the finish. Gregor K. broke flatfooted, lunged at the barrier and attempted to run to the outside rail at the start. St. Minor's race was a good one and stamps him a good mud runner. Farmer Jim tired rapidly in the final eighth. Lemco showed a flash of early speed.
Scratched—33822 Alice Cary, 107.

Winner—Br. h, by Sir Dixon—Merlin (trained by J. E. Richardson).
Went to post at 4:15. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Mercer was called on in the last quarter and made good impressively and was best. Agnes D. ran unexpectedly well and, after trailing the field for the first seven furlongs, came through next to the rail very fast. Obia ran duly throughout, went wide on the stretch turn and was generally messed about under a bad-looking ride. Kalif failed right at the end. Winner—B. c, by Belvidere—Crotchet (trained by D. Lamasney).
Went to post at 2:12. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive of two; second driving. Minder kept Competitor in the good going all the way, was the leader down in the run home and got the verdict in the last nod. With riders reversed Filibuster might have won. Kelly was no help to him when it came to a finish. Julia Junkin showed all her usual speed but quit when challenged. Commena tired in the stretch. Worthington had enough after going a half mile.

She finished next to the inside rail in the deep going. Navigator was easily the best of the others. Boittie ran the best race he has shown and lasted longer than usual. Indian Child was raced into exhaustion in the first three-eighths.

Went to post at 4:21. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Frivol moved up on the far turn, ran around her horses and came away with something in reserve. King's Pet lost a lot of ground at all the turns and Castro put up a weak finish. He should have won. Annie Lauretta came again in the run home. This race should improve her. All Souls made his usual strong run through the stretch, but could not get up. He wants a longer route to show at his best. Dr. Carr caught Enhance tiring in the run home, but was doing his best to stall off Artist.
